

Man Wanted for Attempted Abduction Arrested Again

A man wanted in connection with an attempted abduction was back in court Friday, April 11th in Luzerne County.

Police said Mark Brandon of Sweet Valley tried to kidnap a woman at knifepoint from a car wash near Sweet Valley.

Brandon missed a court date.

The Luzerne County Sheriff's Department and federal marshals said after a long investigation, they found Brandon hiding in Colorado.

"We tracked him actually using different cell phone records and I think there were rentals, car rentals," said Sheriff Michael Savokinas.

Brandon is in the Luzerne County jail on $5,000 bail. He is due back in court later this month.
