PUBLIC COMMENT

Drew Magill from Sugarloaf began by thanking the board for not supporting an appeal on the inflatable dam. Mr. Magill asked the commissioners to consider retaining development rights on a piece of the land the county has listed for sale. Mr. Magill went on to explain his reasons for this request.

Paul Zagnel from Freeland stated that he wanted to discuss an issue in regard to Children & Youth removing children from the home of a woman in Freeland. Commissioner Petrilla responded that this was a violation of privacy and could not be discussed at the meeting. Mr. Zagnel requested the assistance of Commissioner Urban in helping him change an ordinance in Freeland that dealt with alleys being blocked. Mr. Zagnel provided Commissioner Urban with his documentation.

END OF COMMUNICATIONS

Jim Blaum addressed the motion on the 2003 Capital Projects Bond Issue in regard to the payment of L. Robert Kimball & Associates. Mr. Blaum stated the non-payment of this invoice can result in late charges and penalties against the county. Mr. Blaum stated that there is already a contract in place for these services and he would recommend that the board make a motion to pay these invoices.

Commissioner Skrepenak asked Mr. Blaums opinion in regard to his vote on these invoices. Commissioner Skrepenak stated that he was not going to support the motion because of the issue of his name being mentioned with Kimball in regard to tickets. Commissioner Skrepenak stated that he wanted confirmation that Kimball & Associates had been procured according to county policies & law and whether this is an unethical issue. Mr. Blaum responded that this was not an ethics law complication. He stated that this was an existing contract that had been voted on by board members. Mr. Blaum stated that this was no ethics law complication for Commissioner Skrepenak to make the motion or vote on it.

Commissioner Urban commented that his concern was the invoices were not detailed.

Request a motion to authorize the payment to L. Robert Kimball.

It was moved by Commissioner Skrepenak, seconded by Commissioner Petrilla
