Atty. Blaum cited the Salary Board guidelines under County Code that whenever any positions are created, eliminated or salary adjustments are made to the Courts or respective Row Office, that entity will have a vote on the motion. Since these positions fall under the Courts jurisdiction, Judge Ciavarella is present to represent the Courts.

Commissioner Urban noted the positions were reviewed during the Executive Session and the majority of the proposed positions are the reauthorization of the positions that existed last year in the courts along with the addition of two new positions, a probation supervisor administration assistant in the Orphans' Court. After some analysis it was found that there was a court stenographer who has performed the duties of the administrative assistant in orphan's court. He stated he did not have a problem with creating an executive assistant as long as the stenographer position is eliminated; I do have a problem with adding another position. Another issue was addressed earlier during this meeting is the financial compensation. The second position, stating he had no problem approving the probation supervisor as long as a probation officer position is eliminated. Because of these issues I have cited I will not support this motion. Mr. Flood concurred with Commissioner Urban's comments.

Commissioner Skrepenak responded the position of administration assistant was a reclassification for an employee who has been performing outside the scope of their normal work duty. Secondly, referring to a request by the Sheriff's Department for more employees to generate revenue for the County, and believes that it what is happening her, the courts are taken

The Commissioner added he could not help what happened in previous administrations but believed the Courts have been very cooperative with everything this Board has asked of them including agreeing to a hiring freeze , no salary increases and the Court administration has promised to seek commissioner approval before filling vacant positions left by promotions or transfer.
