

HOME RULE CHARTER - PUBLIC FORUMS & DEBATES

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON EVENTS & FORUMS
PLEASE CONTACT THE CAMPAIGNS DIRECTLY

Oct. 18, Monday:

7 p.m.: The Wilkes-Barre Downtown Resident's Association will hold an informational meeting about home rule at Wilkes University's Henry Student Center in the second floor ballroom. Charter drafters James Haggerty and Frank Conyngham will answer questions.

This event is free and open to the public.

Oct. 19, Tuesday:

Charter NO public forum, 7 to 9 p.m. at the Hazleton City Hall, 40 N. Church St., Hazleton

This event is free and open to the public.

Oct. 21, Thursday:

7 p.m.: WVIA will air "Home Rule: Winners and Losers." Charter drafters Haggerty and Rick Morelli, county Solicitor Vito DeLuca and county Controller Walter Griffith will debate the issue and answer questions.

Oct. 27, Wednesday:

League of Women Voters Home Rule forum at Wilkes University, 7 to 8 p.m. Second floor of the Wilkes University Student Center, 84 West South Street, Wilkes-Barre. Serving on the panel will be Luzerne County solicitor Vito DeLuca, charter drafter James Haggerty and Wilkes University professors Thomas Baldino and Robert Seeley, Ph.D. The format for the public forum will be followed with questions submitted from the audience and asked through a moderator from the LWV board or a guest moderator.

This forum is free and open to the public.

PARTIAL LISTING