Urban's appointment to the election board violates the home rule charter. This is a public and bipartisanly recognized fact. Don't waste public money paying for both sides of a court case that, if justice is done, will only postpone his removal and that of the two other election board members who decided they were above the charter and appointed him anyway. Just vacate their seats. Home rule isn't a petty technicality to enforce. It's vital to curtail corruption. Thank you.
