Voting Session - Non Agenda      Brian Shiner Kingston, PA

Ed Chesnovitch (Thank You Next)

Ed wanted a better Luzerne County, a government for the people, free from corruption.

He fought the County Commissioners in court, along with Walter Griffith, to put an end to their incessant borrowing to balance the budget.

He opposed the reassessment with Grace, Dottie, LouAnn, Audrey, me and hundreds of others because it wasn't done fairly.

Ed, with Tom Dombroski, was a constant and vocal participant during County Commissioner's meetings.

He was a proponent of the Home Rule Charter for our County.

Chesno sat in the front row next to me during every Council meeting and the Authority, Boards and Commission meetings we attended.

He was the catalyst for the Preamble to our Home Rule Charter being properly printed, framed and hung in the Council meeting room.

He made "Thank You Next", the dismissive response towards all public comments, his rebel mantra.

Ed was a patriot of our County.

He believed, as I do, that if we unite, we can make this County a better place.

He was a loving father.

He was a self-appointed promoter of 'Fine Art', the works of his son, the artist.

But most importantly, he was my friend.

We miss you, Ed. God Bless.

Brian Shiner
