Re: 2019-072

Dear Ms. Aoraha,

Thank you for writing to Luzerne County with your request for information pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right-To-Know law ("RTKL").

Recently, the Luzerne County Office of Law received a request for documents from you described in the attached Right To Know request. Your request is denied because Luzerne County no such records exist. §705 of the RTKL states that "when responding to a request for access, an agency shall not be required to create a record which does not currently exist or to compile, maintain, format or organize a record in a manner in which the agency does not currently compile, maintain, format or organize the record". For clarification, the Luzerne County Sheriff's Department does not have any records related to the individual in question. As a recommendation, I would suggest visiting Pennsylvania's AOPC (Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts) website where you may search court dockets for individuals who may have charges or violations at the Magisterial District Court or Court of Common Pleas levels.

You have a right to appeal this denial of information in writing to Executive Director, Office of Open Records, Commonwealth Keystone Building, 400 North Street, 4th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17120.

If you choose to file an appeal you must do so within 15 business days of the mailing date of the agency's response. Section 1101. If you have further questions, please contact Shannon Crake Lapsansky. Please be advised that this correspondence will serve to close this record with our office as permitted by law.

Respectfully,

Laura C. Dennis, Esq.
