

RE: 2020-072
April 27, 2020

Ms. Dennis:

I am requesting a premises history aka a list of all calls for service (police calls, alarms, assistance, etc.) from January 1, 2010 or from the start of Luzerne County Emergency Services' computerized database (if later) to December 31, 2019, for the following address:

101 N Main St, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18701

A CAD spreadsheet or printout would satisfy my request, as long as it has date and time of each incident, type of incident, and disposition (police, not court case). I am not looking for any names of victims. I'm just doing a due diligence search on the address.

Along with the list of all calls for service, please provide an explanation for any codes or abbreviations used on the list of all calls for service.

Please e-mail me copies of these if you can.

I agree to pay the statutory fee for these records, if any are applicable. Let me know if cost is more than $15. Thank you!

RTK REQUEST #2020-072

Dear Mr. Sherlock:

Thank you for writing to Luzerne County with your request for information pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right- To-Know law ("RTKL").

Recently, the Luzerne County Office of Law received a request for documents from you described in the attached Right To Know request. Your request is denied. It is well-settled law in Pennsylvania, due to safety reasons, that the disclosure of information that could identify a victim, witness or caller to 911, is not permitted without a Subpoena or Court Order.

The RTKL in this matter would only be available for any and all calls for the nearest intersection of streets and would include all information for this area, but not specific to an address.

You have a right to appeal this denial of information in writing to Executive Director, Office of Open Records, Commonwealth Keystone Building, 400 North Street, 4th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17120.

If you choose to file an appeal, you must do so within 15 business days of the mailing date of the agency's response. Section 1101. If you have further questions, please contact Laura C. Dennis. Please be advised that this correspondence will serve to close this record with our office as permitted by law.

Respectfully,

Laura C. Dennis, Esq.
